THE NEW ENFORCEMENT BILL.—The enforcement act passed at the last session of Congress, which, upon the unfounded pretense of another step in the gradual subjection of the country to a revolutionary policy which seeks to set aside State authority and lead to the absorption of all power by the federal country it is sure to cure No one denies that election frauds are likely to be perpetrated by all parties, and the political annals of the country demonstrate that they have been quite as great in the past as the present. Every man who knows aught of the old contest, State and national, between whig and democrat, for a quarter of a century, knows that nothing was more common than for one party to charge election frauds upon the other. especially in New York and other great cities. Yet, in those days, who ever dreamed of the interference of the U. S., and especially of the federal military, to regulate matters? It was universally agreed that if frauds were to be suppressed, the State authorities were the proper ones to take the matter in hand. The man who, in those days, would have proposed federal intervention for such evils would have been disowned by his own party as a lunatic. But that torpid spirit of indifference and inaction which, in other free countries, has so often preceded the loss of public liberty, seems to have crept over our own people, until now the most unmistakable strides to centralization excite no sensation.

Enforcement seems to have been substituted of late for the constitution and right, and those who favor it seem neither to know nor care where it will lead. We had an illustration of it in our own State last fall, when citizens were arrested under the enforcement law and dragged before the federal authorities. In one of these cases, in Kent county, three citizens-one quite aged-were roused from their beds at midnight, arrested and taken off by federal officials, and one of those co-operating, a volunteer, has since been described by affidavits of responsible men as an escaped convict from the Virginia penitentiary, who afterwards became an officer of the United States army, and was dismissed for his rascalities—and the arrested parties, as is known, were finally discharged, there being no ground at all on which to detain them. The additional enforcement bill, just passed the House, which gives the federal officials entire control over all elections at which mem-bers of Congress or electors of President and Vice-President are to be chosen, differs in this, among other particulars, from the former enforcement bill, that whereas that was limited to places having more than 20,000 inhabitants, the present bill extends its operations to every county, provided two citizens shall apply to the judged of the United States Circuit Court in whose circuit the town or city may be located, that they desire the law to be enforced in that place. It thus extends the supervision of the bayonet into every nook and cranny of the land where it will reach, the only limitation of it being that, as the standing army is now organized, it cannot reach, to be effective, much beyoud the principal towns. This is a new element in American politics, and quite unknown for centuries in the politics of Great Britain, a government which we are accustomed to consider tyrannical and despotic, beyond our own, at least. But what is modern republicanism if not progressive? As if the army of the United States were not adequate to the emergency, we have the same provision for United States marshals and deputies, who may arrest, without any warrant, any person who attempts, or is supposed to attempt, to commit any act prohibited by the supplemental act. Provision is made for the transfer of any suit brought by an aggrieved citizen against a federal officer from a State court to the United States Circuit Court, and to render the judgement of a State court in such a case null and yold. The supplemental measure is more stringent in its details and fines and penalties than the federal election law of last session. Like that, it will include State, county and city elections, where they occur at the same time with the elections mentioned in the bill. In the debate in the House on this substitution of the federal bayonet for the authoity of the States, Mr. Cox, of New York, gave notice that his State would control its own elections by fixing another day than the congressional for the State elections. Probably Congress will have a supplemental bill in due time, on some pretext or other, providing for taking charge of all elections, State and federal, whenever and wherever they are held. It has refused to be warned by the outspoken opposition to federal military interference by republican Governors of States, or to take note of the opposite political results to those intended by the enforcement bill of last session, as shown by the elections which have since taken place. Perhaps the continued and increased use, in contempt of public opinion, of military intervention in the politics of the country, will lead to another and more decisive recoil upon its inventors. - Baltimore Sun.

A SOCIAL PEST, the most notorious of the "secret divorce lawyers" of the country, has been arrested in New York in the person of M. House, who has been an extensive advertiser in his line. It appears that one Lucius B. Randolph, of New Haven, applied to House to procure for him a divorce from his wife, who is a Virginian. House paid an unknown man to personate Randolph in the court, and on his perjured statement a divorce was granted. For this services Randolph paid House $100. Shortly afterwards Randolph married a Miss Wyckoff, and two days thereafter, the swindle having been discovered, the same New Haven judge who had granted the decree of divorce, on application from Randolph's first wife, caused the decree to be annulled. A warrant was issued for Randolph's arrest on a charge of bigamy, and the good work was further extended by the subsequent arrest of House, the Mephistopheles of matrimony, for subornation of perjury. In the meantime House's numerous and cheap cli-cuts are what the French call desoles.

CLEAR & HARMLESS AS WATER. NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY

The following letters speak for themselves: Washington, Nov. 4, 1870.

Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir-After a very Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—After a very thorough and impartial trial of your Crystal Discovery for a month, I feel compelled to acknowledge its very great superiority over any other article now in use for the purpose designed—the speedy restoration of the color and growth of the hair, and no one using it according to directions can fail I am convinced to attain this rections can fail, I am convinced, to attain this much desired result to perfection. The simplicity of the preparation and its entire cleanliness affords a new opportunity to the vast numbers utterly disgusted with the poisonous nostrums in use. Having a large number of my personal acquaintances who use your preparation with equal success, I cordially recommend Crystal Discovery to all persons desiring to use anything of this kind. Very respectfully, P. Doyle, 701 I street, N. W.

Washington, D. C., July 25, 1870. Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—It affords me pleasure to say that I have used your Crystal Discovery with perfect success. Having tried many others, I find yours superior to any I have heretofore used, and I cannot too highly recommend it as a rapid promoter of the growth of the hair, and by a few applications restoring it to its original color. It is perfectly clean and free from any objectionable matter.

Very respectfully yours,

R. W. Silvoy,

Very respectfully yours, R. W. Silvoy, K st., bet. 4th and 5th, N. W.

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 10, 1870

Mr. Arthur Nattans: Sir—I have great pleasure in testifying to the excellence of your Crystal Discovery for the Hair. My back hair is remarkably long and thick, and became prematurely gray, (this being hereditary.) In eight days it resumed its natural color, chestnut-brown, coloring every hair. I like your preparation for its purity, pleasant odor, and freedom from all mineral and poisonous substances, as well as its other excellencies. I will recommend it to my other excellencies. I will recommend it to my acquaintances. Very respectfully, Miss L*

Even the most incredulous must be convinced by such proofs as the above, from persons well known in Washington. The originals are open to any one wishing to see them.

are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Fore-bodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learn-of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplating Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-time sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRETENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the consitution, and incarable of curing, keep the unhappy suf-

Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the consitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being re-stored to a renewal of Life, Vigorand Happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
